Application for Church Worship Piano Accompaniment

(September 12, 2013)

Pre-Requirements

The piano accompaniment is an important part of church worship. It requires a pianist's commitment, dedication, and love for the Lord. The Chinese Christian Church of Madison (CCCM) encourages our youth and members to participate in this service. The following are the prerequisites for a piano accompanist:

1. Has been baptized;
2. Is at least 12 years old; and
3. Is in active participation of CCCM church activities.

Application Procedure

1. A youth and his/her parents or an adult church member must submit this application form to the deacon member in charge of 灵修;
2. The deacon member in charge of 灵修 will inform the applicant of the decision of the elder and deacon board;
3. Once approved, the applicant is obligated to take one training lesson provided by the church and then will be assigned to piano accompaniment during Friday worship.
4. To serve for Sunday's worship, one needs to:
 - a. serve at least 6 months at Friday worship; and
 - b. be invited to and pass an audition organized by the elder and deacon board.

By signing below, I am applying for the piano accompaniment service of Chinese Christian Church of Madison. I understand the requirements and I will do my best to serve His church.
